~ Contents ~

This game uses a second person viewpoint.

The aim is to manipulate a blind girl and aim for an exit.

In order to open the door of the exit, you need the key that is falling somewhere in the room.

Let's look for the key while using "the magic to borrow your eyes" like to be caught by the "dangerous" inhabitants living in the hall.

You can not see the walls and keys at the girl's point of view, but you can feel the aura of the inhabitants.
The aura can tell whether residents in the room are "harmless (white)" or "dangerous (red)".

You can borrow the point of view of residents using "borrowing eyes".
Walls and keys can be seen from the residents' point of view, but it can not be distinguished whether residents are "harmless" or "dangerous".

Using these, we aim at the top floor where a witch is located.
